

Fictional Story

Write a fictional story that ties in with the 8th Commandment.

- Read and review the Eighth Commandment in your catechism along with the questions and answers (pages 110–113 in the catechism)
- Consider especially what is spoken against in this commandment and think of some examples of when this commandment is broken every day
- Writing Assignment:
 - Write a fictional short story about what a day would be like if this commandment would be kept perfectly
 - You must include at least ONE of the following in your story
 - Using online chatting or Facebook
 - Using your cell phone
 - Using an online video game

This story must be word processed, double spaced, and at least two pages in length